The consequences for the above actions are as follows:

1. The first time I break a rule, the counselor will tell me to stop, think and do. This means I will stop what I am doing, think about my actions, and then do the right thing.

2. If I continue with inappropriate behavior the counselor will tell me to take a Time Out. This means I will sit down away from the activity for an appropriate period of time to collect my thoughts and settle down.

3. If a time out is not enough, or if the camper is habitually being reprimanded for offenses, the camper will speak to the Directors at camp and the parents will be notified.

4. If a discussion with the camp Director does not rectify the problem, the parents will be notified to pick up the camper from camp at their expense. There will be no refunds if a camper must be asked to leave camp.

Campers will be immediately sent home if:

1. Campers are caught in an accommodation or situation where they are in private with the opposite sex.
2. Campers possess alcohol, tobacco, or non-prescription drugs.
3. Campers are caught in the act of vandalism (ie rolls of toilet paper flushed in commodes, breaking glass in windows/doors, destroying screens or another person's property. In addition, the cost to repair/replace the damaged property will be the responsibility of that person causing the damage or their parents.
4. Campers are physically abusive or posing a threat to other campers or staff.

I understand the rules and the consequences of attending camp.
